Ancient World History policies and procedures

FOOD & DRINK POLICY

In general, food and drinks are allowed in my class. This is contingent on it not becoming a distraction in class, and as long as students can handle the responsibility. This policy is subject to change at my discretion, and at any time.

ASSIGNMENT FORMATTING

All typed assignments must be in 12 PT TIMES NEW ROMAN FONT, double-spaced, and have 1” margins with your name, class name, the teacher’s name, and the date in the top left corner with a centered title.

Computers are available in the library for students to use to type and research.

HOMEWORK POLICY

Homework is due on its assigned date. Late work will lose 50% on the first day it is late. After one day, no credit will be given for late assignments.

While students will not receive written homework every single night, it is important that students spend time reviewing concepts, and read over class notes and handouts at home when they can.

Current Events Logbooks will due the first class of each week, and will not be accepted late, except in the case of absence.

Classwork may be assigned for homework if it is not completed in class.

ABSENCES AND GRADES

Weekly and daily work will be updated weekly (bell ringers, participation, and log books). Please check grades regularly and feel free to ask me any questions that you might have about a particular grade.

If you are absent, you are responsible for completing your make-up work on time (one day for make-up for each day absent).

All make-up work will be placed in your class’s absent folder and your name will be written on any work you missed. It is your responsibility to ask a classmate or me for help on making up any assignments, and/or to meet with me to make up any tests, quizzes or papers.

If you know you are going to be absent beforehand, you should ask me for your make-up work before the absence. I will make every effort to provide you with this work ahead of time. This can be done before or after school or via e-mail.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES

Electronic devices should be kept in student’s backpacks or in the wall organizer. Devices should not be out during class, unless otherwise instructed by the teacher or with permission. Devices may only be charged in the designated charging station.

First offense: Student will turn the phone into the teacher until the end of class.

Second offense: Student will turn the phone into the teacher until the end of day.

Third offense: Student will be sent to the Dean with the phone.
